SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of FIVE (5) YEARS.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall comply with the mandatory, standard and if applicable, the special conditions that have been adopted by this Court, and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

The defendant shall participate in a mental health treatment program and follow the rules and regulations of that program. A probation officer, in consultation with the treatment provider, may supervise participation in the program. The defendant shall pay the costs of such treatment to the extent the defendant is financially able.

The defendant shall participate in a sex offense-specific treatment program and submit to periodic polygraph testing at the discretion of the probation officer as a means to ensure compliance with the requirements of supervision or the treatment program. The defendant shall follow the rules and regulations of the program. A probation officer shall supervise the defendant's participation in the program. The defendant shall pay the costs of the program to the extent the defendant is financially able.

The defendant shall participate in a sex offense-specific assessment. The defendant shall pay the costs of the program to the extent the defendant is financially able.

The defendant shall allow a United States probation officer to install computer monitoring software on any computer (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)) the defendant uses.

The defendant shall not view or possess any "visual depiction" (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256), including any photograph, film, video, picture, or computer or computer-generated image or picture, whether made or produced by electronic, mechanical, or other means, of "sexually explicit conduct" (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256).

The defendant shall not access the Internet except for reasons approved in advance by a probation officer. To ensure compliance with the computer monitoring condition, the defendant shall allow a probation officer to conduct initial and periodic unannounced searches of any computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)) subject to computer monitoring. These searches shall be conducted for the purposes of determining whether the computer contains any prohibited data prior to installation of the monitoring software; to determine whether the monitoring software is functioning effectively after its installation; and to determine whether there have been attempts to circumvent the monitoring software after its installation. The defendant shall warn any other people who use these computers that the computers may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

The defendant shall not go to, or remain at, a place for the primary purpose of observing or contacting children under the age of 18.

Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. A probation officer may conduct a search under this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that the defendant has violated a condition of supervision or that there has been another violation of the law.
